

Kluger Kaplan Silverman Katzen & Levine Promotes Josh Rubens and Richard Segal to Partner

MIAMI, FL – Miami-based litigation firm Kluger, Kaplan, Silverman, Katzen & Levine announces Josh Rubens and Richard Segal have been named partners at the firm. These promotions come at a time when Kluger Kaplan continues to strengthen its base of young leadership, a key priority for the firm as it approaches its sixth-year anniversary.

“Both Josh and Richard have proven they are dedicated to their careers, our firm and our community,” said Founding Member Alan Kluger. “These two attorneys are the youngest to make partner at Kluger Kaplan and that is a direct result of their hard work, consistent success and passion for the law.”

Josh Rubens focuses his practice on commercial litigation and trust and estate litigation. In his commercial litigation practice, Josh represents clients in breach of contract, corporate/partnership, tort, securities, and real estate matters. In his trust and estate litigation practice, Josh represents trustees, beneficiaries, and other interested parties in fiduciary and guardianship litigation. Josh is a member of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Section of the Florida Bar and the Urban Land Institute Young Leaders Group. Josh serves as a board member of the Israel Bonds National New Leadership Division and Miami Young Investor Society. He is also involved with the AIPAC Miami Club and the Jewish Federation of Greater Miami.

Richard Segal focuses his practice on commercial litigation and family law, assisting clients in a range of business and corporate litigation matters, and matrimonial disputes. Richard has extensive experience handling disputes with large financial institutions in real estate, wealth advisory, investment management, and trust relationships and transactions. Richard specializes in fiduciary duty disputes and punitive damages claims. He is a Board Member of the Board of Governors of Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce, Board Member of the Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce Law Council, Co-Chair and Board Member of the Emerging Leadership Council of the Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce, and a Board Member and Young Founder at Mount Sinai Medical Center Foundation.

“Kluger Kaplan is a firm driven by the entrepreneurial spirit — where you are rewarded for your hard work and strong results rather than process and protocol,” said Richard Segal. “We have learned from the best working with legal titans like Alan Kluger and Abbey Kaplan, and we look forward to following in their footsteps.”

Rubens received his Bachelors of Business Administration with a concentration in finance and organization and management from Emory University, Goizueta Business School. Segal received his Bachelor’s degree at the University of Michigan. They both received their juris doctorate from the University of Miami School of Law, Rubens graduated magna cum laude and Segal cum laude.

“We look forward to continued success at Kluger Kaplan and growing our careers with this firm,” said Josh Rubens.

###

About Kluger, Kaplan, Silverman, Katzen & Levine, P.L.

Miami-based Kluger, Kaplan, Silverman, Katzen & Levine, P.L. focuses on complex, high-stakes disputes across a broad range of disciplines and industries, including all aspects of business and corporate litigation; real estate related litigation; securities and financial fraud; corporate governance; bankruptcy related litigation and debtor and creditor’s rights; appeals in state and federal courts; professional liability; intellectual property disputes; class actions; and complex matrimonial litigation. The firm’s veteran litigators have served as lead class counsel in federal multi-district litigation and trials in federal and state courts throughout the country. For more information, please visit www.klugerkaplan.com.