

SOUTH FLORIDA

citybizlist

January 17, 2019

UMV: 8,113

Kluger Kaplan Silverman Katzen & Levine Names Lindsay Haber as Partner

Lindsay Haber

Preeminent litigation firm Kluger, Kaplan, Silverman, Katzen & Levine, is pleased to announce that Lindsay Haber has been elected to the firm's partnership. Previously, Ms. Haber served as an Associate in Kluger Kaplan's Family Law Group since joining the firm in 2011.

Ms. Haber focuses her practice on family law disputes, including divorces, child custody issues, domestic violence and preparations of prenuptial agreements and paternity disputes. Beyond her national practice, she has handled international domestic issues, including a kidnapping that crossed borders.

"Over the years, Lindsay has shown dedication, expertise, persistence, and an understanding of how to provide outstanding client service and counsel. We are lucky to have her continue to grow under the Kluger Kaplan brand." said Alan J. Kluger, a founding member of Kluger Kaplan. "Today's announcement of Lindsay joining the firm's partnership is another milestone in our firm's growth and underscores the strength of our rising talent."

For the last three years, Ms. Haber has held the position of a Director on the Board of the Broward County Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section where she most recently assisted in organizing its first-annual "Law-LaPalooza" Bench and Bar Conference in December 2018. She is also a member of the Broward Matrimonial Lawyers Association. Her past leadership roles include The Network Rush Hour Chair in 2012-2013 for the Greater Miami Jewish Federation, and the Florida Association for Women Lawyers (FAWL) Membership Committee Chair in 2011-2012. She has also presented to national industry groups concerning timely topics related to family law.

Prior to Kluger Kaplan, Ms. Haber interned for Legal Aid of Broward County. She received her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Florida, and attended Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad Law Center, where she graduated summa cum laude with her Juris Doctorate degree. During this time, she was also the submissions editor of Nova Law Review, as well as Vice President of Teams of the Nova Trial Association.

About Kluger, Kaplan, Silverman, Katzen & Levine, P.L.

Kluger, Kaplan, Silverman, Katzen & Levine, P.L. focuses on complex, high-stakes disputes across a broad range of disciplines and industries, including all aspects of business and corporate litigation; real estate related litigation; intellectual property litigation; employment litigation; securities and financial fraud; corporate governance; bankruptcy related litigation and debtor and creditor's rights; appeals in state and federal courts; professional liability; intellectual property disputes; class actions; and complex matrimonial, probate and trust litigation. The firm's veteran litigators have served as lead class counsel in federal multi-district litigation and trials in federal and state courts throughout the country. The firm has offices in Miami, Boca Raton and Minneapolis. For more information, please visit www.klugerkaplan.com.