

● LAW

ALAN KLUGER

SHAREHOLDER, KLUGER, KAPLAN, SILVERMAN, KATZEN & LEVINE, MIAMI

Kluger Kaplan is a litigation boutique based in Miami with approximately 30 lawyers and an additional 25 staff members. Kluger has been the founding managing member since the firm's inception in 2009. The firm recently launched the H.T. Smith Legal Studies Scholarship to support minority law school students who have a strong connection with the South Florida community. Kluger says his favorite part of his current work is mentoring younger attorneys. "I was mentored by Stanley C. Meyers, and I learned so much that helped me succeed both as a lawyer and community activist," he says.

- EDUCATION Bryant University (BS), University of Miami (JD)
- SOMETHING SURPRISING I have made over a dozen matches for people that have resulted in marriages, children and families. According to Jewish tradition, one earns a place in heaven by bringing three marriages to fruition.
- ADMIRE Norman Braman of Braman Motorcars. He has stood behind his principles to help make this community answerable to its citizens.
- READING A Promised Land, by Barack Obama